

CAMPERS

are welcome on the West Coast provided you...

1. Respect our environment - leave the site clear of all rubbish, waste and damage.
★ Understand that dumping of waste and litter is an offence and will result in instant fines or prosecution
2. Act responsibly and respect the access and enjoyment rights of other public space users.
3. Have immediate access to, or on-board, toilet, wastewater collection and rubbish disposal facilities.
4. Use designated public spaces, camping areas (e.g. Department of Conservation sites) or commercial premises as available.
★ Seek the local  SITE, local council website or other camping guides if unsure of freedom camping sites in the area
★ Appreciate that some environmentally or culturally sensitive and built-up areas will not permit any form of freedom camping
5. Understand that freedom camping is a temporary activity, generally considered to be two days unless otherwise informed.
