The surrender of a resource consent does not take effect until you have received a notice of acceptance of the surrender from the West Coast Regional Council. There may be a final inspection required in surrendering your consent. You will be contacted by a Compliance Officer if this is needed. The Consent Holder will remain liable for any charges relating to this consent/these consents, and for any breach of conditions of the consent which occurred before the surrender of the consent, up to the date the surrender is accepted by the West Coast Regional Council.

Public information

The information you provide is public information. It is used to help process a resource consent application and assess the impact of an activity on the environment and other people.

Your information is held and administered by the West Coast Regional Council in accordance with the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987 and the Privacy Act 1993. This means that your information may be disclosed to other people who request it in accordance with the terms of these Acts. It is therefore important you let us know if your form includes any information you consider should not be disclosed.
